Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/22

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, "Do you own a car," the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

☐ Incapacity.

I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

Disability.

My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

☐ Active duty.

I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

□ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

Specific laws that allow exemption

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 2: List Others to Be Notified for a Debt That You Already Listed

Use this page only if you have others to be notified about your bankruptcy for a debt that you already listed in Part 1. For example, if a collection agency is trying to collect from you for a debt you owe to someone else, list the creditor in Part 1, and then list the collection agency here. Similarly, if you have more than one creditor for any of the debts that you listed in Part 1, list the additional creditors here. If you do not have additional persons to be notified for any debts in Part 1, do not fill out or submit this page.

Statement of Financial Affairs for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy, and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts. Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7:	Liquidation
$245	filing fee
$78	administrative fee
+ $15	trustee surcharge
$338	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their non-exempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A–1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A–2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form —the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A–2). The calculations on the form— sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

$1,167 filing fee

$571 administrative fee

$1,738 total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$278	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$313	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to: http://www.uscourts.gov/forms/bankruptcy-forms

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from: http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to: http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/cre dit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF CHAPTER 13 CLIENTS AND ATTORNEYS

It is important for clients who file a bankruptcy case under Chapter 13 to understand their rights and their responsibilities. It is also important that the clients know what their attorney's responsibilities are, and understand the importance of communicating with their attorney to make the case successful. Clients should also know that they may expect certain services to be performed by their attorney. The below guidelines are hereby agreed to by the clients and their attorneys.

CLIENT

The attorney and client acknowledge that they have discussed the obligations of the client to:

Before the case is filed:

- 1. Provide the attorney with complete and accurate financial information. This should include all debts owed, all property owned, an accurate current budget, a projected budget, copies of all required tax returns or transcripts from the IRS, and 6 months of pay stubs, and any other proof of income.
- 2. Inform the attorney of any prior bankruptcies (in all jurisdictions) and the outcome of those proceedings.
- 3. Discuss with the attorney the client's reasons and objectives for filing the case.
- 4. Carefully review the completed bankruptcy petition (including all schedules and statements) prior to signing it, and promptly advise the attorney of any errors, omissions, or changes which need to be made to ensure its accuracy.
- 5. Review the proposed Chapter 13 Plan with the attorney and understand what the proposed payments will be, when they are to be made, and how they are to be made. The client should understand what payments to creditors are to be made through the Chapter 13 Trustee's office.

After the case is filed:

- 1. Begin making the proposed plan payments to the Trustee so that the Trustee receives the first proposed plan payment within 30 days of filing.
- 2. Keep the Trustee and attorney informed of the client's address, telephone number, and employment status.
- 3. Inform the attorney of any wage garnishment or attachment of assets which occurs or continues after the case is filed.
- 4. Prior to attending the virtual Meeting of Creditors, client is required to watch the Chapter 13 videos hosted by the Chapter 13 Trustee and read the "Red Booklet" sent out by the Chapter 13 Trustee and ask the attorney about any questions/concerns they have about them.

- 5. Client will attend the virtual Meeting of Creditors (341 Meeting) by using Zoom. While participating in the virtual Meeting of Creditors, client will conduct themselves in a manner that is respectful to the proceedings, i.e. appropriate dress, location, behavior, not driving, etc. and will discuss what constitutes appropriateness with attorney prior to the meeting.
- 6. Review the Confirmation Order when received, and advise the attorney if the client has questions about their obligations under the plan or how creditors are getting paid.
- 7. Review the Trustee's Notice of Intent to Pay Claims when received and advise the attorney of any filed claims that appear to be improper or excessive and also advise the attorney if there are any creditors who have not filed a proof of claim but the client wants to pay.
- 8. Insure all property of the estate, including maintaining liability, collision, and comprehensive insurance on vehicles securing loans or leases.
- 9. Contact the attorney promptly if the client experiences any event that would render them unable to make their scheduled plan payment, such as loss of job, serious illness/injury, unexpected large expense, etc.
- 10. Inform the attorney if any tax refunds the client would be entitled to are seized or not returned to the client by the IRS.
- 11. Provide any documentation/information requested by attorney for the attorney to file any necessary post-petition motions (i.e. tax returns, pay stubs, amended budget).
- 12. Contact the attorney prior to attempting to buy, sell, or refinance any real estate or employing any real estate agents or listing real estate for sale. Contact the attorney prior to attempting to buy, sell, or refinance any motor vehicle or other asset.
- 13. Contact the attorney immediately if the debtor receives an inheritance or believes they may receive an inheritance in the future.
- 14. Contact the attorney if the client is sued or involved in any serious legal proceeding during the case, including criminal matters and divorces.
- 15. Contact the attorney if the client has any potential lawsuits against another person or company that arise after the bankruptcy is filed.
- 16. Attend a financial management workshop before the due date of the last scheduled plan payment.
- 17. Open and read all correspondence from the attorney, Trustee, and Bankruptcy Court.
- 18. Listen to any voice messages left by the attorney and promptly return any missed calls from their attorney.

19. If the client is involved in a joint case, client should inform attorney if they separate from their spouse or if they are seriously contemplating divorce.

ATTORNEY

The attorney certifies they are certified in consumer bankruptcy by the American Board of Certification. (Mark if applicable)

The attorney has agreed to accept a flat fee (referred to in Administrative Order 23-1 as the "No App Fee") of $ 4700.00 for all aspects of the bankruptcy case, except for services excluded from the No App Fee (described below). For some of the excluded services, the attorney has agreed to limit the fees to amounts set by the Bankruptcy Court for the specific services. For the remaining excluded services, the attorney may request additional fees on an hourly basis in accordance with the agreement between the attorney and the client.

Fees shall be paid by the Trustee through the plan unless otherwise ordered. The attorney may not receive fees directly from the client, other than the initial retainer, unless paid by a third party, in which event such payment must be fully disclosed to the Bankruptcy Court. Any fee relating to the bankruptcy case must be agreed upon by the client and the attorney as well as being disclosed to and approved by the Court.

Services included in the No App Fee:

The services the attorney agrees to provide for the No App Fee include:

- 1. Meet with the client to review the client's debts, assets, liabilities, income, and expenses. Request, as appropriate to the case, financial information, including credit reports and information on any mortgage debt or support obligation.
- 2. Conduct necessary due diligence regarding any prior bankruptcies involving the client.
- 3. Counsel the client regarding the advisability of filing a bankruptcy and whether filing either a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 case would assist in meeting the client's objectives.
- 4. Explain what payments will be made directly by the client and what payments will be made through the client's proposed Chapter 13 plan.
- 5. Explain to the client how, when, and where to make the Chapter 13 plan payments, including advising the client that the first plan payment must be received by the Chapter 13 Trustee no later than 30 days after the case is filed.
- 6. Explain to the client how the attorney's fees and Trustee's fees will be paid and providing the client a signed copy of any contract between the client and the attorney and a copy of this Rights and Responsibilities Agreement to the debtor.
- 7. Advise the client of the requirement to attend the virtual 341 Meeting of Creditors by Zoom, take necessary steps to verify the client is prepared to participate in the 341 Meeting of Creditors, and instruct the client as to the date, time, and login procedure for the meeting.

- 8. Advise the client of appropriate dress, location, and behavior for Court appearances and the 341 Meeting of Creditors (i.e. not wearing bedclothes, walking, driving, smoking/vaping, or calling from work). Advise the client to have a copy of the petition and the schedules and statements with them as they attend the virtual 314 Meeting of Creditors and to participate from a location free of distractions.
- 9. Advise the client of the necessity of maintaining liability, collision, and comprehensive insurance on vehicles securing loans or leases and advise the client of the duty to insure all property of the estate.
- 10. Timely prepare and file the client's petition, plan, statements, and schedules.
- 11. Ensure that if the plan includes a motion to void liens, that the collateral is identified in detail and an applicable exemption is claimed.
- 12. Ensure proper notice and service of the plan.
- 13. Prior to the scheduled virtual 341 Meeting of Creditors, verify that Attorney and client will have adequate internet connections to appear virtually and will have prepared for the meeting.
- 14. Review all documents filed in the case and review all communications received concerning the case.
- 15. Respond to objections to plan confirmation and, where necessary, prepare an amended plan, and appear at the confirmation hearing.
- 16. Explain to client that a plan may be modified after confirmation in certain circumstances and, where appropriate, prepare, file, and serve necessary proposed modifications to the plan which may include suspending, lowering, or increasing plan payments.
- 17. Prepare, file, and serve any necessary amended statements/schedules as appropriate.
- 18. Review the confirmation order and the Trustee's notice of intent to pay claims.
- 19. If necessary, object to improper or invalid claims based upon information provided by the client.
- 20. File claims for creditors when the client's goals and interests are served by such filing.
- 21. Respond to client communications in a timely manner. Attorney should advise the client of the best and most efficient means of communication.
- 22. File any notices of change of employment or change of address for the client.
- 23. Represent the client in connection with all motions filed in the bankruptcy case, other than those listed in the excluded services below.
- 24. Where appropriate, prepare, file, and serve necessary motions to avoid liens on real or personal property.

- Monitor the case at regular intervals to review the client's compliance with the plan and applicable Court orders, as appropriate to the case based upon: the circumstances of the case, prior Court activity, and the history of the Debtor. Attorneys should utilize resources such as PACER, www.13network.com, the Chapter 13 Trustee's website, or any commercially available software to help them monitor the case status efficiently.
- 26. After conducting a regular, periodic review of the case, communicate with the client to discuss any problems discovered and take steps to address any problems as appropriate to best represent the interests of the client.

Additional services requiring additional limited fees. The following services are not included in the No App Fee, but the attorney has agreed to provide these services, when necessary and appropriate for the case, for additional compensation based on a fee schedule approved by the Court. The maximum additional fee for work performed in connection with obtaining the necessary Court approval for certain activities is indicated below:

- A completed mortgage loan modification of the claim secured by the debtor's principal 1. residence – up to $500.
- A motion and order authorizing the use of insurance proceeds and/or substitution of 2. collateral arising out of a loss covered by insurance—up to $400.
- A motion and order regarding retention of a realtor, auctioneer or other professional 3. relating to the sale of property or representing the interests of the estate – up to $200.
- A motion and order regarding the sale of property and disposition of the proceeds, 4. resulting in the closing of such sale and the filing of any necessary report of the sale – up to $300.
- 5. A motion and order regarding the retention of special counsel by the debtor relating to collecting or pursuing a cause of action in a different judicial forum and that results in the filing of a motion and order authorizing the approval of a settlement of such litigation – up to $300. (When the special counsel is receiving a contingency fee, it is anticipated that such contingency fee will typically be reduced by the amount paid by the bankruptcy estate to the bankruptcy counsel to engage special counsel and to obtain settlement approval so that the cumulative fees incurred by the bankruptcy estate to complete a settlement does not exceed the agreed upon contingency fee. If the litigation is tried to a conclusion and does not require a settlement approval process in bankruptcy, the fee enhancement solely for obtaining approval of special counsel will be up to $200.00, again typically reducing the total contingency fee paid.)

Additional services on an hourly basis. The following services are not included in the No App Fee and are not covered by any specific cap on fee, but the attorney has agreed to provide these services, when necessary and appropriate for the case, but may charge an hourly rate for the Updated May 1, 2023 Doc 1 Filed 02/01/24 Entered 02/01/24 15:50:16 Desc Maig of 7 Document Page 60 of 68 Doc ID: d637740f469e5bbca33feb5a1f64af5114d680f6 work performed – subject to Court approval:

- 1. Motions for sanctions or contempt.
- 2. Representation at a Rule 2004 examination.
- 3. Representation of the debtor(s) in any adversary proceeding (or certain contested matters placed on an "adversary track" by order of the Court), unless such representation is an integral part of the attorney's obligations under the Rights and Responsibilities Agreement.

Services the attorney has not agreed to provide. The attorney has not agreed to represent the client in any adversary proceeding or certain contested matters placed on an "adversary track" by order of the Court, unless such representation is an integral part of the attorney's obligations under the Rights and Responsibilities Agreement or unless the separate litigation representation is spelled out in an addendum to the agreement or in a separate supplemental contract. The client will be fully apprised of any such anticipated litigation that would not be covered by this agreement.
